Centering Moment

This morning, we come from busy weeks and noisy lives.

There are so many voices competing for our attention:

Voices that tell us who we should be, what we should fear, and where we should place our trust.

But Jesus reminds us that the sheep know the voice of the Shepherd.

And just like Samuel, God still calls us by name. God still speaks words of hope, peace, and purpose into our lives.

As we worship this morning, may we quiet the noise around us and listen for the voices of the Shepherd.

May we be ready to say, "Here I am, Lord." And may we trust that the God who calls us is the same God who walks beside us, leads us forward, and never lets us go. We invite you to stand in body or in spirit as we worship together.

Prayer

Leader: Let us pray

People: Faithful God,

You call us each by name and lead us with love

Quiet the voices of fear, doubt, and distraction,

And help us hear Your words of love, hope, and peace.

Help us recognize Your voice above all others that compete for our attention.

As we worship today,

shape us into people who love You more deeply,

follow You more faithfully,

And share Your kindness, peace, and grace with the world.

In the name of Jesus, our Good Shepherd, we pray. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom,
And the power and the glory. Forever. AMEN.

Old Testament Reading

1 Samuel 3:1-10

Carol Stahl

Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the Lord under Eli. The word of the Lord was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.

At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was. Then the Lord called, "Samuel! Samuel!" and he said, "Here I am!" and ran to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So, he went and lay down. The Lord called again, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. The Lord called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the Lord was calling the boy. Therefore, Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down, and if he calls you, you shall say, "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening." So, Samuel went and lay down in his place.

Now the Lord came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

Gospel Reading

John 10:3-4, 11, 27

Carol Stahl

The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me."
