Pastor: Let us pray. People: Loving God, We thank You for the joy of gathering in Your presence. Through song, prayer, and praise, we lift our hearts to You. Draw us closer to Jesus Christ, the One who stands at the center of our faith and our lives. Quiet the voices that divide us and fill us with Your Spirit of humility, grace, and love. Teach us anew what it means to love as You love. Help us to see one another as neighbors, sisters, and brothers, beloved by You. In a world marked by conflict and fear, make us instruments of Your peace and ambassadors of Your compassion. Shape us into a community whose life bears witness to Your love, so that all we say and do may reflect the grace of Christ. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name,
 Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done,
 On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread
 And forgive us our trespasses
 As we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 But deliver us from evil.
 For Thine is the kingdom,
 And the power and the glory. Forever. AMEN.

New Testament Reading1 John 4:7-11

Sam Patricola

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love. God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another.
