Welcome/Announcements — Rev. Melissa Porter-Miller

Centering Moment

*Centering Song — Goodness of God

*Opening Prayer — Rev. Melissa Porter-Miller

Let us pray:

People Lord Jesus Christ,
You showed us what the generous life looks like.
You saw those whom others passed by.
You welcomed those whom others overlooked.
You taught that life is not found in what we possess,
but in following You.
Fix our eyes upon You.
Quiet the voices that tell us we need more,
achieve more, or accumulate more.
Help us instead to seek Your kingdom first.
Shape our hearts to reflect Your heart,
that we might become people who love generously and serve joyfully. AMEN.

Prayers of the People — Sarah Chambers

The Lord's Prayer
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread

And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom,
And the power and the glory. Forever. AMEN.

Gospel Reading Matthew 6:21; Luke 12:15-21, Luke 10: 33-35 Rachel Hamilton

Matthew 6:21
For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Luke 12:15 -21
And he said to them, 'Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.' Then he told them a parable: 'The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, "What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?" Then he said, "I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry." But God said to him, "You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?" So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich towards God.'

Luke 10:33-35
But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, "Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend."
